JACKSON-LIBERTY

OUR SCHOOL SONG

Oh! come ye faithful students raise
The name of Jackson High in praise
As we laud her to the skies,
We'll seek the faith that never dies.

Though we win or lose a game,
Our hearts will always sing her name.
As the coming years go by,
We'll all be true to Jackson High.

CLASS HISTORY OF 1944

1940-41? What is significant about these numbers? This has been a long time ago. Oh yes, everyone remembers that year. It was the fall of 1940 that thirty-nine freshmen entered the doors of Jackson High. It wasn't long though until the greenness was removed and we settled down to work.

With Miss Egnew as our advisor, the following officers were elected; President—James Mansfield, Vice Pres.—Theresa Wonderly, Sec. and News reporter—Norma O'Toole, Treasurer—Alyce Mansfield, and Student Council Representative—Wilbur Master.

Various members of our class joined the F. F. A., F. H. A., G. R., and Hi-Y and continued in these organizations for all four years. Robert Heiserman, Charles Gwiner, Wilbur Master, and Robert Snyder were on the reserve basketball team. Helen Meszaros was one of the cheerleaders. Paul Eddinger had a principal part in the Operetta. Robert Heiserman had a principal role in the Student Council Play.

1941-42 brought many new experience for the former freshmen. Why? We were now sophomores, thirty-five in number. Officers were; President—Theresa Wonderly, Vice Pres.—Robert Heiserman, Sec. and Treasurer—Wilbur Master, Student Council Representative—Alyce Mansfield, Mr. Barnes was our advisor.

Madolyn Nichols and Wilbur Master were on the Student Council. Robert Snyder and Madolyn Nichols had roles in the Student Council Play and Robert Heiserman had a role in the One-Act Play. James Mansfield and Madolyn Nichols were members of the debate team. Mary Jane Wohlgamuth and Marvelene Reeder were on the Newshound staff. Wilbur Master was on the varsity squad, while Charles Gwiner, Robert Heiserman and Robert Snyder made the reserves. Theresa Wonderly and Alyce Mansfield were cheerleaders. Robert Heiserman, Wilbur Master, Don Massie, and Don Kummerer made the track team and Charles Gwiner, Wilbur Master and Don Kummerer made the baseball team.

1941-42 brought many new experiences for the former "40"? They were rapidly climbing the ladder of knowledge and were known as the "Jolly Juniors" with twenty-three in the class. Miss Boldry was our advisor. Our officers were; President—Wilbur Master, Vice Pres.—Robert Heiserman, Sec.—Joe Brickner, Treasurer—Cleoria Coleman, and Student Council Representative—Bernita Havens. This year brought new experiences. We presented our play "Don't Darken My Door," received our class rings and gave a banquet. June Hughes was a member of the Student Council Play and Don Massie and Robert Heiserman were in the One-Act Play. Madolyn Nichols and June Hughes were members of the debate team. Wilbur Master had one of the leads in the operetta. Several members were officers of organizations; Mary Jane Wohlgamuth, secretary of the Student Council and also vice president of the G. R.; Wilbur Master, vice president of the Hi-Y.

Madolyn Nichols, Mary Jane Wohlgamuth, and June Hughes were on the Newshound staff.

Several of the Juniors were successful in the quest for knowledge by becoming members of the County Honor Society. They were Robert Heiserman, Don Kummerer, Wilbur Master, Edna Perkins, Wilma Stump, June Hughes, Bernita Havens, Mary Jane Wohlgamuth, Madolyn Nichols, and Garland Aumaugher.

Wilbur Master, Charles Gwiner and Robert Heiserman made the first ten, Wilbur becoming one of the first five. Don Massie was manager of the team. Joe Brickner, Charles Gwiner, Robert Heiserman, Don Kummerer, and Wilbur Master were on the baseball team.

The last event of the year of great interest was the banquet which we gave at Findlay in honor of the Seniors.

1943-44 brought us nearer the top of the ladder with the title of "dignified" Seniors, but I think you will recall there were times we weren't so dignified. We were right on hand for any good fun.

Under Mr. Kettler's careful guidance as our advisor, we neared the top of the ladder. We had thirty-nine members as Freshmen and now have twenty graduates all of which were of the original thirty-nine.

Officers this year were: President—Cleoria Coleman, Vice-President—Joe Brickner, Secretary—Bernita Havens, Treasurer—Mary Jane Wohlgamuth, Student Council Representative—Madolyn Nichols.

The following members of our class were officers in the different organizations: Wilbur Master, president of the Student Council and Hi-Y; Mary Jane Wohlgamuth, Vice-President of the Student Council and President of the F.H.A.; Garland Aumaugher, President of the Girl Reserves; Cleoria Coleman, Vice-President of G. R. and Treasurer of F.H.A.; Mary Jane Wohlgamuth and Madolyn Nichols were members of the G. R. cabinet; Eileen McHaffie was Student Council Representative for the F.H.A.; Don Massie was Vice-President for Hi-Y and F.F.A.; and Joe Brickner was President of F.F.A. Many Seniors were members of these organizations.

Madolyn Nichols was again a member of the debate team.

In the Student Council play Helen Meszaros, Wilbur Master, Madolyn Nichols, and Charles Gwiner had parts.

Madolyn Nichols was editor of the Newshound. Mary Jane Wohlgamuth, Norma Jean O'Toole, Marvelene Reeder, and Wilbur Master were on the staff.

Several members who were fortunate enough to be in the County Honor Society were: Wilbur Master, June Hughes, Madolyn Nichols, Eleanor Haughn, Cleoria Coleman, Mary Jane Wohlgamuth and Garland Aumaugher.

On the first five of the basketball team were Wilbur Master, Joe Brickner, and Charles Gwiner. June Hughes and Helen Meszaros were cheerleaders.

Now that our last year of high school has been finished, we still have not reached the top of the ladder which we so long ago started to climb. That last step seems the biggest and most important of all.

—GARLAND AUMAUGHER

CLASS PROPHECY

The rain was coming down slowly and steadily, it was a dull evening so I decided that I would stay home and listen to the radio and retire early. Anyway, I wanted to hear my favorite radio program and so I was satisfied. I turned on my radio just in time. Yes, Joe's voice brought back to me many memories and swell times I had, had at Jackson-Liberty. "Joe Brickner, Famous Comedian—star of radio." It was swell to know that Joe had made good—his jokes were still as bright as ever and kept his listeners well entertained. Then Joe announced that his guest star for the evening was the well known orchestra leader—Mary Jane Wohlgamuth. The last time I had heard from Mary Jane, she was attending the "School of Music," in Chicago. She had told me then that she thought she would continue her music. What a day that was—we talked of the good old days of "44". She also informed me that Theresa Wonderly had gained a position on the Trans-continental Air Lines from New York to Chicago as an air stewardess. As I wanted to see Theresa, I decided to wait until the following day. I arranged to meet her plane on time but had a rather hard time finding her. Finally, I found her and she told me all of her adventures which were very interesting. She told me that she had a surprise for me but we would have to go back to the plane. Sure enough, it was a surprise. I discovered that Wilbur Master was piloting that plane. Although I didn't get to talk to him very long I learned that he had been a pilot in the Navy Air Corps during World War II. He also told me of his wife and his little red haired daughter who were living back in Bascom. I promised him I would stop and see them on my way home. I kept my promise to Wilbur and stopped to see his family. They were living on a lovely farm. We talked and during our conversation we were well entertained by some of the pranks that little Margaret, performed. I asked her where she learned such tricks and she replied "Jack showed me how." I was anxious to know who this "Jack" was because it recalled to my mind the Gwiner lad who was always up to "Par" on his wise tricks. Sure enough Mrs. Master told me that Charles was farming their farm for them. I had a little chat with him but I didn't want to keep him from his work so I hurried along my way.

I still had a long ways to travel before I reached my home, which is in Detroit, and so I had a little time to visit my old home town (Kansas), which had grown to be quite a place. I was alarmed to see the big changes that were made there. While looking into the air to see the tall buildings I ran right into my old friend Eleanor Haughn. We were so glad to see each other that I even forgot to excuse myself but I don't think she cared. She told me that she was Mrs. Chaney now and was raising a family of three. We were standing on the corner talking when a car went shizzing by. For a while I was speechless—but she told me not to get excited because that was just the Lenny Freeman's (the former Cleoria Coleman) out joy riding. Then as I was about to leave Eleanor who should walk up but our own June Hughes. She hadn't changed a bit and she was still as talkative as ever. June told me that she had been traveling to Florida and back ever since she was knee high and so her next trip was going to be to New York. Being a Commercial Artist she really got around and there wasn't even a sign of her settling down.

It took me one hour to get away from June and the city of Kansas, but I finally made it.

Being rather late, I didn't know if I would catch the next bus out or not but I made it. When I arrived in Fostoria I had a few minutes to look around before my bus went on its way, so I decided to have a look around the fair city. I noticed that a new dress shop had been installed and so I thought I would go in and have a look around. I wasn't at all surprised to see that the owner was Hila Durst. I didn't have much time left and so I spent little time there, but I learned from Hila that Jeanne Pankhurst was the manager of the shop. I was informed that she was doing a grand job of it. I was curious enough to inquire about Wilma Stump, as Jean and Wilma were almost always together, come rain or shine. She told me that Wilma had married and was living a quiet country life. Speaking of country life—I remembered that Bernita Havens (Now Mrs. Porter Massie) had taken up a life contract to always live in the country and to help the Mister become a success. She was doing a good job of it. I was so wrapped up in my conversation with Hila that I hardly realized that time was passing and I had exactly 3 minutes to get to the station.

Three minutes isn't a very long time when you are several blocks away from the station and my bus was just pulling out but it stopped and waited for me having seen me coming on the run. I was thanking the driver because he had waited for me—but he laughed and told me to save my thanks for the young lady in the fourth seat back. I went back and was welcomed by the friendly smile of Helen Meszaros. She told me that she was working in Detroit in a big hospital. She had entered the U. S. Cadet Nurse Corps in the fall of '44" and had served overseas for several months. As we talked, I learned of some of her experiences which seemed very daring. Helen also told me that she had met Madolyn Nichols in New York City. She was teaching science in a large High School. By this time our bus had stopped and Helen stepped out of the bus; she tripped and made a crash landing. A nice looking young man came to her rescue. Very much to our surprise we looked into the face of our own Donald Massie. After Helen got herself adjusted we had a nice little chat with Don and lo and behold, he told us that he was serving as judge in the city.

We, the members of the Jackson-Liberty High School, Seneca County, in the United States of America, realizing that the end of our school days is drawing near, and that the time has come when we must make our last will and testament, do hereby bequeath to our many fellow students, as follows:

First: We of the Senior Class will our ability to get along with other classes and with each other to the Junior Class.

Second: We will our ability of being a cooperating class to the Sophomores.

Third: We will our ability to keep up with the teachers' patience to the Freshmen.

I, Garland Aumaugher, will my ability to make scrap books to Kenneth Brickner.

I, Joe Brickner, will my ability to be able to answer any questions to Clayton Myers.

I, Cleoria Coleman, will my ability to play basketball to Lois Boyd.

I, June Hughes, will my winning smile to anyone who wants it.

I, Hila Durst, will my ability to be seen but not heard to Bill Rienhart.

I, Charles Gwiner, will my Ford Convertable to anyone who may want a Ford.

I, Eleanor Haughn, will my ability to always hold a friend and never lose one to anyone who wants a friend to hold.

I, Bernita Havens, will my beautiful long hair to anyone who wants long hair.

I, Wilbur Master, will my thick whiskers to anyone who likes to shave.

I, Don Massie, will my Plymouth to anyone who will treat it with Patience.

I, Helen Meszaros, will my ability to draw to anyone who would like to be an artist.

Being very inquisitive (as we women are) we were very much interested in knowing if Don had married. We imagined he had because he didn't make all those trips to Gibsonburg for nothing. Surely enough and to top every thing off he told us he was the father of twins recently born. They had named the twins Don and Donna. He also informed us that Garland Aumaugher was his private secretary and that she was a very capable and handy person to have around his office. I was glad to hear that as Garland was always our right hand woman back in school. She always seemed very dependable. We would have liked to talk to Garland but it was time for our bus to move along and we had to be on our way so we bid Don good bye and were on our way.

It seemed no time at all until we were in Detroit. There at the station Helen and I parted but she promised to come and see me often. I started walking home but it started to rain and so I hailed a taxi. When I got out of the cab and started running for my door I heard a very familiar voice holler, "Hey! Wait for me, I'm drowning." I looked around to find Eileen McHaffie coming up the walk behind me. We proceeded into the house and it wasn't long until we were warm and had a delicious meal ready to eat. While we ate we talked (as usual) and I learned from her that she and Thelma Rousher were going to spend their vacation together and so she would have to leave my place in the early morning to meet Thelma. Eileen and I turned in early that night because we were both tired and needed some rest—but we were no sooner asleep than we heard a hard knock at the door and we learned that Thelma had started earlier than she had planned and so she came on instead of waiting for Eileen to meet her in the morning. No one acquired any sleep that night because we were all too excited to sleep. Thelma told me that Marge Reeder was still living back in Ansdan and she had chosen to lead a very domestic form of life. Morning came soon and I was sorry that the girls had to leave so soon because I did enjoy having them with me for that short time. By noon everything was quieted down, and was due at work in an hour. I made it just in the nick of time. I spent the rest of my day trying to do my job well, but oh was I sleepy. After work I walked home in the rain—being thankful that something was able to keep me awake.

Oh! Oh! I must have fallen asleep. Ouch! and is my neck ever stiff. I must have dozed off during Joe's program, anyways the last I remember Joe had introduced Mary Jane and her orchestra. It seems as though I had a dream of some sort—oh, now I remember—it was about the class of "44". Funny how all those things come back to you after a long time, isn't it? Yes, folks, that's my class—every one made themselves worthwhile and I'm mighty proud to be able to say that I am a member of that class.

—NORMA O'TOOLE

I, Eileen McHaffie, will my ability to get around to anyone who wants to get around.

I, Madolyn Nichols, will my ability to get high grades without trying to Francis Burns.

I, Norma Jean O'Toole, will my Irish ways to anyone who wants to be Irish.

I, Jean Pankhurst, will my ability to curb my temper to Dorothy Hatfield.

I, Marvalene Reeder, will my ability to make my Chevy perk to John Soul.

Entering high school in 1941 after a hearty initiation we began a very exciting career. With the help of Miss Egnew we became quite well accustomed to being "upstairs."

During our Sophomore year the class was well represented in plays, music, debates and basketball. Mrs. Fraser had to put up with us on the second step in high school. In September 1943 the class assembled as "The 17 Jolly Juniors" with Mr. Bricker as our advisor. Again our class took part in many school activities.

We are looking forward to the future when we hope to become members of the so-called "Dignified Seniors" club.

CLASS HISTORY

In the year 1942, we entered high school with twenty-six pupils. We were initiated by the upper classmen, and admitted into high school.

Two of our boys were on the reserve basketball squad. Joyce Good tried out for the vocal contest. We were represented in the different organizations of the school.

In our Sophomore year, Joan Shaw, Carolyn Grove, Joan Waltermier, and Donald Russell were in the Student Council play. Joan Shaw, Carolyn Grove, and Joan Waltermier were in Prince of Peace. John Wonderly was in the one-act play. Joan Waltermier and Carolyn Grove were in debate. Francis Burns, Donald Russell, Clyde Shaul, Ernest Dicken, and Clayton Myers were on the basketball squad with Donald and Francis on the varsity squad.

CLASS HISTORY

On September 7, 1943 a group of boys and girls entered the Freshman class of Jackson-Liberty High School, though I don't understand where the teachers acquired the patience to put up with us.

We were welcomed by a "real initiation" and for a few days afterwards we were quite a droopy looking bunch.

We got off to a good start by electing class officers, who appointed chapel and assembly committees.

With slight exaggeration of imagination we had a Hallowe'en party.

Different members of the class took part in various activities such as basketball, student council play, prince of peace, music, and cheerleading.

We are looking forward to being the "Sappy Sophomores" next year.

SENIOR PLAY

AUNT TILLIE GOES TO TOWN!

Aunt Tillie Trask, who dislikes all males, is upset because her niece, Pamela Marsh, is going to marry Mervin Tucker. Aunt Tillie is called to town by her lawyer on an important matter. While she is upstairs packing her suitcase Mervin Tucker arrives. He has wired his pal, Ronald Howland, to meet him at Aunt Tillie's. He leaves his suitcase in the living room and goes to hunt for Ronald. Aunt Tillie comes downstairs and taking Mervin's suitcase instead of her own departs for town. Ronald arrives looking for Mervin. The latter decided to take a swim and when he returns to the house he is wearing a barrel because his clothes have been stolen. He then has to put on Aunt Tillie's clothes. Luther Lorrimer, Ronald's employer, arrives and Mervin is introduced as Aunt Tillie. Aunt Tillie returns from town dressed in Mervin's suit, having ruined the only dress she had along. More complications are added when Mervin's Aunt Tillie Tucker arrives. Mervin's future bride is at her wits end trying to figure things out. Dr. Hattie Bing, a chiropractor, arrives and mistaking Mervin for Aunt Tillie insists on giving him a thorough treatment. In the end Aunt Tillie loses her dislike for men and everything turns out all right.

LITTLE WOMEN

We find four of the March girls, Jo, Amy, Beth and Meg trying to comfort Amy after being spanked on the hands for taking lemon-drops to school. After she quiets down, the girls talk about their play which is to be held Christmas Day. While they gather around her to hear her read a letter from Mr. March who is a Chaplain in the Army.

Mr. Laurence and his grandson, Laurie, live next door to the Marchs'. Laurie finds great interest in watching the girls from the window, but the one and only for him is Jo, the playwright, and tomboy of the family. He returns a dog to Jo and in turn gets invited to their play. During the play a telegram comes for Mrs. March; her husband is ill, and she must go to him at once. There is a question of money but Jo solves this by selling her hair.

With the absence of their mother the girls are left alone. Laurie being the main subject of their talks, Jo spends most of her time with him, with her sister Amy tagging along after them. Meg and Beth spend their time housekeeping. The play moves on with such incidents occurring; Amy burning Jo's books, Megs falling in love with John Brooks, a school teacher. Mr. and Mrs. March's return to the family. Sorrow is shared by the family when little Beth dies.

All three of the girls marry. Everyone is happy and contented.

One Act Play

STANDING: Madolyn Nichols, Miss DeEulis, Julia Jeanne Lanning, Wilbur Master, Mary Lou Fish.

SEATED: John Wonderly, Dona Belle Chubb.

The living room of the Blodgett home is the scene of great activity. Today is the day that Betty, Julia Jean Lanning, is going to sing for Mr. De Rochambeau, a great composer. Lucy, Dona Belle Chubb, the Blodgett's younger daughter is going to welcome the great musician so she is practicing with her mother, Mary Lou Fish. Miss Dinah Dobbs, Madolyn Nichols, is a cousin of Mr. De Rochambeau, and through her efforts he is coming to Mapleton. Danny Driggs, John Wonderly, a young neighbor boy, is definitely against the composer, and also, he is against his purpose in coming to Mapleton.

Danny and Lucy think that it is silly that their brother and sister are in love. Tom Driggs, Wilbur Master, is very much in love with Betty Blodgett, but through a petty quarrel over Mr. De Rochambeau, they are separated. Betty is then more determined than ever to sing for the great composer. Miss Dobbs receives a telegram stating that her cousin got on a through train instead of one that stops in Mapleton. Miss Dobbs promptly faints. Tom Driggs quickly apologizes to Betty and they leave to get married. Lucy and Danny being bored with the whole affair are going to play the bass drums.

MAMA'S BABY BOY

Mrs. McLean, an attractive widow nearing forty, has her eighteen year old son, Shephard, pose as a youth of fourteen so that she can appear as a younger woman and marry a rich widower, so she believes. In turn, the widower, trying also to appear younger, has his seventeen year old daughter, Juliet, pose as a girl of thirteen, so that he may marry the widow, whom he believes to be wealthy. Neither of them have a cent, both having lost their money in the stock market. A portion of the losses of both widow and widower are restored and they decide to marry. There is also a romance between Shephard and Juliet.

APPRECIATION

The members of the Senior Class wish to express their most sincere thanks to Mr. Marchion of "The Dicken Studio" for the many ways in which he cooperated with us in the publication of our yearbook. Yes, the pictures were by Marchion.

We also thank "The Gray Printing Company" for their splendid cooperation and work.

We would also thank all you who have helped us by your purchase of this book.

Best Wishes!

BASKETBALL...

The Players

WILBUR MASTER, Forward

This is Wilbur's last year in school and he leaves a place that will be difficult to fill. He played good basketball and had a total of 255 points for the high point player on the team.

FRANCIS BURNS, Forward

Francis is only a Sophomore this year and we are counting on him very much next year. He was a very good ball handler and player.

CHARLES GWINER, Center

Charles is a Senior this year and leaves another place that will be hard to fill. He played the backboard well on offense and defense.

FLOYD LICHTLE, Guard

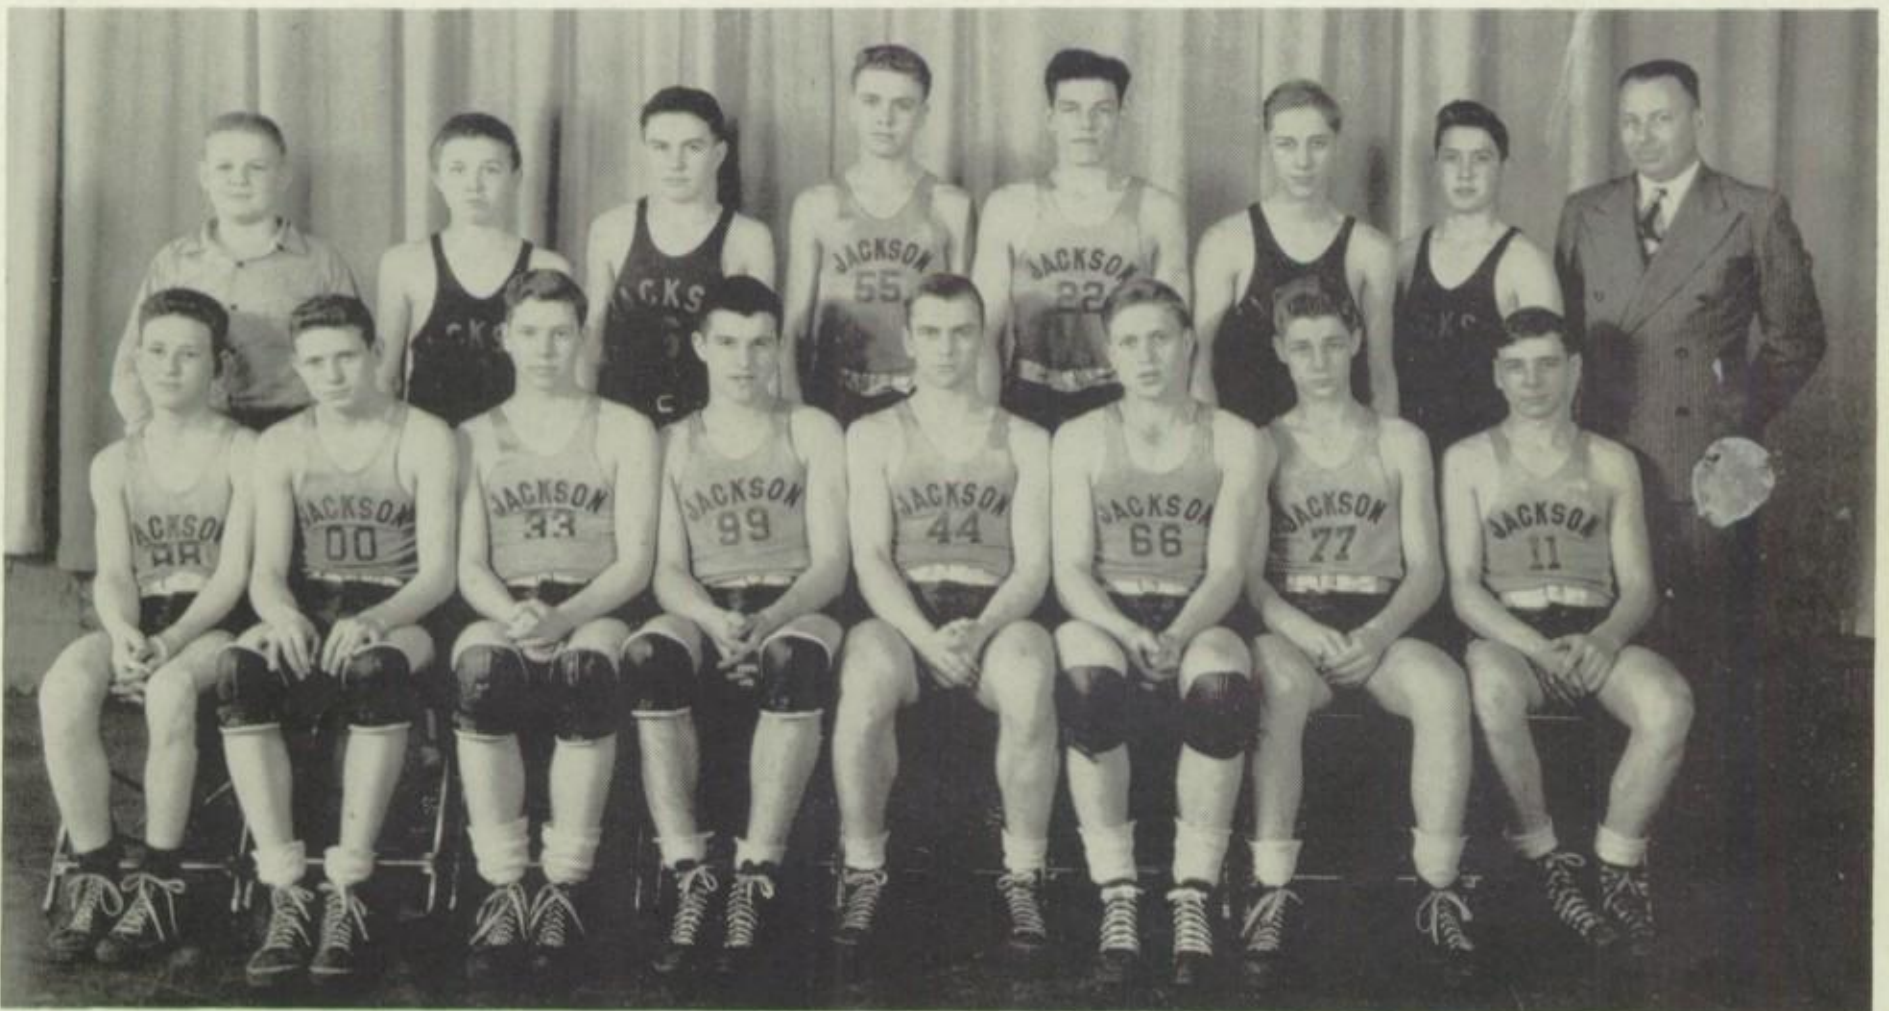

Floyd is only a Junior this year. We are counting very much on him next year. He was a very fast player and a good ball handler, kept his opponent checked all the time.

JOE BRICKNER, Guard

Joe leaves another place that will be hard to fill next year. He played his best basketball on the defense.

COACH BRICKER

Came to Jackson Liberty a year ago and has done very well. All of the players thought he was a very good coach. He will be coaching here next year. We all wish him the best of luck.

SECOND ROW: Jack Weissinger, Ernest Dicken, Clyde Shaul, Lewis LeJeune, Donald Russell, Clayton Myers, Raymond Stewart, Mr. Bricker.

GIBSONBURG SUPERIOR FERTILIZER

An All Plant Food Fertilizer

VITAMINERALIZED

Your soil requires a different fertilizer today than it did 20 years ago, because the many crops grown have sapped those vital rare elements from it that are so essential in plant life. The only way to restore them is through fertilizer built like GIBSONBURG SUPERIOR FERTILIZER. It contains 24 of these essential elements. GIBSONBURG SUPERIOR FERTILIZER has not 1 pound of worthless filler in a ton; it produces healthy vigorous plants and you know healthy vigorous plants produce good crops. We mix special fertilizer for Tomatoes, Sugar Beets and Potatoes. Let us test your soil and we can tell you what analysis fertilizer will give you the best results.

Order GIBSONBURG SUPERIOR FERTILIZER from our agent CLYDE PEELER, KANSAS, OHIO, or direct from the plant. It is manufactured by GIBSONBURG COAL & FERTILIZER CO.

Also manufacturers of SUPERIOR DUST for Tomatoes, Sugar Beets, Pickles and all garden vegetables.
